
BACKGROUND

In 2005, the federal Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) Commission directed 5 military investigative agencies to co-locate at Marine Corps Base Quantico no later than 15 Sep 2011. The relocating agencies and estimated jobs include:

- 745 Counterintelligence Field Activity (CIFA) not counting Joint Counterintelligence Academy (JCTA)
Note: CIFA is now part of the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA)
- 743 Headquarters Naval Criminal Investigative Service (HQ NCIS)
- 506 Headquarters Air Force Office of Special Investigations (HQ AFOSI)
- 469 Defense Security Service (DSS) (may add 200 more non-BRAC), not counting DSS Academy
- 291 Headquarters US Army Criminal Investigation Command (HQ USACIDC)
- 2,753 New jobs -- 351 military, 1847 civilians, and 555 contractors, plus approx 200 students in two training academies.

ORGANIZATION

The Quantico Growth Management Committee (QGMC) was established in late 2005 by Prince William and Stafford counties with support from the Dept of Defense Office of Economic Adjustment. QGMC members include:

- Prince William County Supervisors ----- Maureen Caddigan (Co-Chair), John Jenkins, Frank Principi
- Stafford County Supervisors ----- Cord Sterling (Co-Chair), Mark Dudenhefer, Paul Milde
- Marine Corps Base Quantico Commander ----- Col. Daniel Choike (Liaison)

MISSION STATEMENT

To enable leadership from Prince William and Stafford Counties to identify issues and opportunities related to Defense-associated growth, and develop growth management plans and strategies for implementation by local governing bodies.

MEETINGS

Meetings are open to the public, and generally held every two months on Monday evenings at 7:00 p.m. The next meeting is scheduled for Mon 29 Mar 2010 at Prince William County Government Center. See QGMC website for additional information.

FACILITY

A 700,000+ square foot $300+ million facility is under construction at the intersection of Russell and MCB-1 (Telegraph) roads, just west of I-95, along with freeway ramp and turning lane improvements. The facility is currently called the Military Departments Investigative Agencies (MDIA) building. Construction is expected to conclude by early 2011.

PRIORITIES

A QGMC BRAC Action Plan was adopted in Mar 2009, which emphasizes transportation, workforce, small business, lodging, and communication. A priority transportation project was approved in Oct 2009, which focuses on intersection and widening improvements along US-1 from Joplin/Fuller roads in Prince William County to Telegraph Road in Stafford County.
